SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of: one (1) year as to each of Counts 4, 5, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 13 of the Indictment, to run concurrently with each other.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 - ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
5. ☐ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (42 U.S.C. § 16901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
6. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: ALLEN BRICE

CASE NUMBER: 1:16cr2LG-RHW-002

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. DEFENDANT: ALLEN BRICE
CASE NUMBER: 1:16cr2LG-RHW-002

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant shall provide the probation officer with access to any requested financial information.
2. The defendant shall not incur new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation office, unless the defendant is in compliance with the installment payment schedule.
3. The defendant shall cooperate with the Internal Revenue Service in the payment of any outstanding tax obligations and shall provide documentation of such to the supervising U.S. Probation Officer.
- * 4. The defendant shall make restitution to the Internal Revenue Service in the amount of $1,919,820.20. Of the total amount of restitution, $1,643,043.20 is owed jointly and severally with co-defendant, Jeremi Washington. In determining restitution, the Court has considered the amount of loss as calculated by the IRS, the defendant's financial resources, the financial needs and earning ability of the defendant, his dependents, and all financial information as detailed in the presentence investigation report. The restitution is due immediately, and the payment of any remaining balance shall begin while the defendant is incarcerated. Upon release, any unpaid balance shall be paid in installments of not less than $200 per month, with the first payment due 30 days after release from imprisonment. Payments made to the U.S. District Clerk of Court shall be forwarded to the following:

Internal Revenue Service - RACS
Attn: Mail Stop 6261, Restitution
333 W. Perishing Avenue
Kansas City, MO 64108

In the event that the restitution is not paid in full prior to the termination of supervised release, the defendant is ordered to enter into a written agreement with the Financial Litigation Unit of the U.S. Attorney's Office for payment of the remaining balance.

5. The defendant shall complete 80 hours of community service work within the first six months of supervision. The defendant shall perform the community service work at specific times agreed upon with the approved community service agency and U.S. Probation Office. The defendant is responsible for providing verification of completed hours to the U.S. Probation Office.
6. The defendant shall participate in a program of testing and/or treatment for alcohol/drug abuse, as directed by the probation office. If enrolled in a drug treatment program, the defendant shall abstain from consuming alcoholic beverages during treatment and shall continue abstaining for the remaining period of supervision. The defendant shall contribute to the cost of treatment in accordance with the probation office Copayment Policy.
7. The defendant shall not possess, ingest, or otherwise use, a synthetic cannabinoid, or other synthetic narcotic, unless prescribed by a licensed medical practitioner for a legitimate medical purpose.
8. In the event that the defendant resides in, or visits a jurisdiction where marijuana has been legalized, the defendant shall not possess, ingest, or otherwise use marijuana or marijuana products, unless prescribed by a licensed medical practitioner for a legitimate medical purpose.
9. The defendant shall submit his person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computers, electronic communication devices, or office, to a search conducted by a United States probation officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of release. The defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. An officer may conduct a search pursuant to this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that the defendant has violated a condition of his supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation. Any search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner.
